FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIFTH APPELLATE COURT OF KENTUCKY:—I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. As Circuit Judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As Judge of the State Fiscal Court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new Constitution, as well as to construe the present Constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of franchise under law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine.

I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.

Very respectfully,

JAMES E. CANTRILL.

We believe that throughout the country the feeling is that the Democratic National Convention "can be trusted to make a platform which will meet existing conditions and which will place before the people live issues." The prospects of the party are bright and getting better. So far as the platform is concerned, that is a matter for the convention. It has always been the habit of the National Democracy to allow its party law to be made every four years. And it is a good habit. Men change, conditions change, and sometimes it is important to make new declarations even on old subjects. But all this is for the convention.

LIMESTONE, Scotch and Chicken Cock whisky at Central Bar.

ATTENTION.—Don't forget the big sale of Thos. McClintock's on February 24. Forty work mules, horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, etc. Dinner for all. See advertisement.

BASTARDY CASE.—Wash Thomas, colored, was tried yesterday on charge of bastardy before Squire Wm. Thomas and a jury. The verdict was that defendant pay $5.00 per month for twelve years. He gave good bond to carry out the judgment of the court.

A BUSHEL OF CORN.—It has been figured that out of a bushel of corn the distiller gets four gallons of whisky; out of it the farmer gets forty-five cents, the railroad company gets $1, the manufacturer gets $4, the drayman gets 15 cents, the retailer gets $7, the consumer gets drunk, the wife gets hunger and the children gets rags. One of the most important things has been omitted by the mathematician—that ever-lasting old sick headache should come in after the drunk. No estimate of dollars and cents can be made for it.

THE NEW VERSION.—An exchange has it thus: "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth then the editor, then the liberal advertiser—which was good. The next day it snowed and He created the man who does not believe in advertising, another who does not take the home paper—and then he rested. Then the devil got into the moulding-room and created the man who takes the paper for several years and fails to pay for it. After he had completed the sorry job and having a few lumps left he created the excuse of a man who settles his subscription by informing the postmaster to mark his paper "refused."

HEMP SEED.—We have a lot of Pure Cultivated Hemp Seed. The kind that will raise a good crop of hemp.

AMUSEMENTS.

GREAT PIECE OF STAGE MECHANISM.

—Much interest has been manifested concerning the mechanical methods of the thrilling chariot race employed in Klaw & Erlanger's stupendous production of Gen. Wallace's religious spectacle, "Ben-Hur," which is to be presented at the Opera House, Lexington, Ky., February 22, 23 and 24, with a special matinee on Wednesday, February 24.

In this great arena contest the spectators see eight horses galloping at breakneck speed and straining every muscle to gain the advantage in the race within the amphitheatre. Behind each quartet of horses is a Roman chariot. The wheels revolve rapidly; the chariots lurch and sway and the flaming beribboned garments of the drivers flutter behind them, adding intensity to the realism of the scene. The illusion is still further increased as the interior wall of the amphitheatre and the dust flies in blinding clouds beneath the crushing wheels of the chariots. The clatter of the rushing hoofs of the horses and the rumble of the chariots are distinctly heard.

When "Ben-Hur" was presented in London, at the Drury Lane Theatre, the present King of England witnessed it twice and then commanded a royal box to be built in the center of the pit of the theatre, so that he could more thoroughly enjoy the great race scene.
